

In 1991, MCHM began operations with the Old Monroe County Courthouse as its only museum. Today, we have five sites. Our mission is founded on two beliefs: an understanding of our regional history enriches people's lives and a first-hand experience through quality exhibits is the best way to learn the stories of our past. MCHM collects, preserves, studies, interprets and exhibits artifacts, photographs and manuscripts. We serve the general public, schoolchildren, local residents, tourists and scholars through a cooperation with other local institutions for the betterment of the community.
